How can Happy Tails help to cushion your out-of-pocket expenses when your furry companion requires surgery?

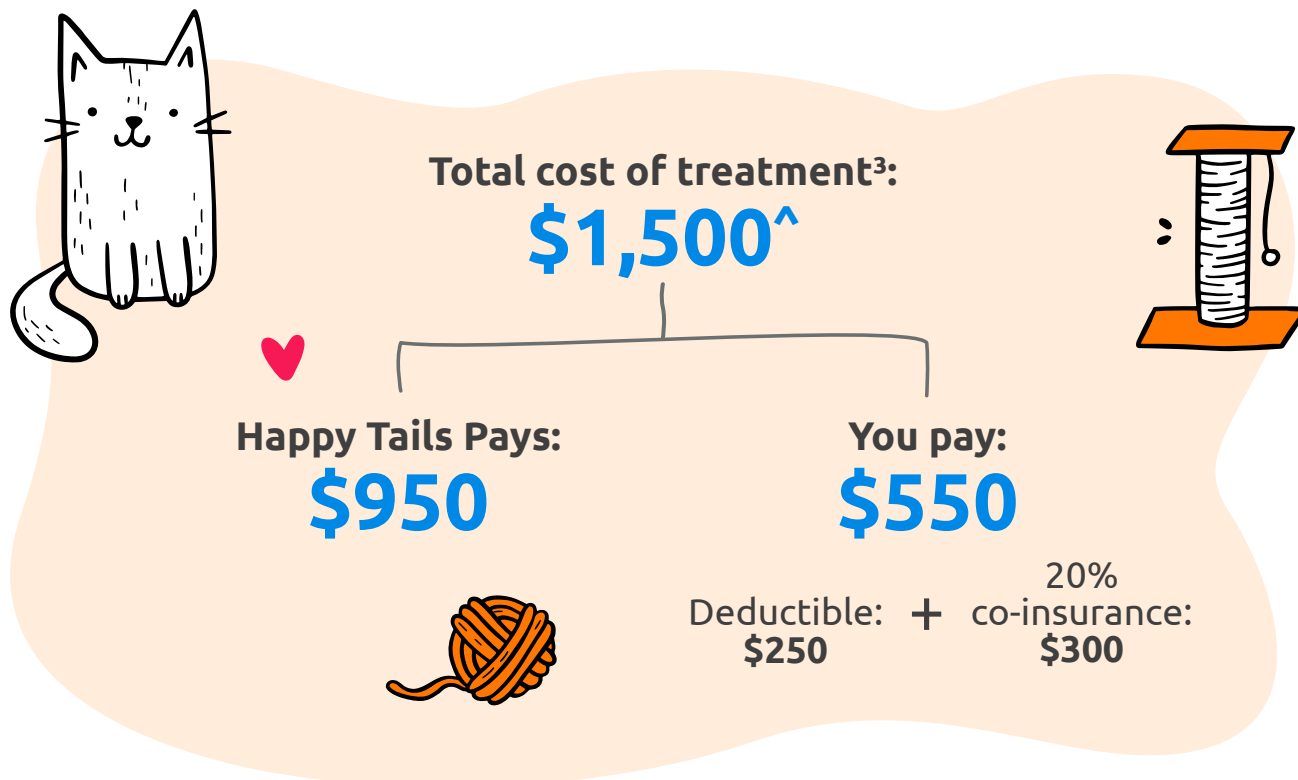

Happy Tails is here to help soften your out-of-pocket expenses with reimbursement of cost of treatment. Here are some common conditions that your pet might face and how they are covered by Happy Tails:

1. Intervertebral disc disease (IVDD): Your 3-year-old dog is insured with the Furry plan and the cost of treatment amounts to $7,000. Here is an overview of your out-of-pocket expenses and how Happy Tails can help:

Your total payment for your pet's treatment comes up to $1,650 for a $7,000 bill. Happy Tails takes care of the other $5,350.

2. Cruciate Ligament Tears (ACL Injury): Your 2-year-old cat is insured with the Purrfect plan and the cost of treatment amounts to $1,500. Here is an overview of your out-of-pocket expenses and how Happy Tails can help:

Your total payment for your pet’s treatment comes up to $550 for a $1,500 bill. Happy Tails takes care of the other $950.

[^] Treatment cost vary based on severity. The above examples are for illustrative purposes only and assumes that the bill is not limited or excluded by policy terms and conditions.

Deductible: The fixed amount borne by you in a claim after your pet’s co-insurance portion has been applied.

Co-insurance: The portion of the claim amount which you need to pay before any deductible is applied.

Understanding how Happy Tails works for you and your pet

Like their owners, pets fall sick too. Here is an example of how Happy Tails works:

Jane noticed her golden retriever puppy, Bella, has been limping over the past week. She also observed that Bella has stiffness in her front legs.

Bella was diagnosed with Elbow Dysplasia at the vet and surgery is recommended.

A month after surgery, Bella had follow-up x-rays and rehabilitation to help in her recovery. Jane received the total bill of $4,000 from the vet.

Thankfully, Jane purchased Happy Tails for Bella prior to discovering her illness. Happy Tails paid $2,950[^] of the total bill, helping to cushion Jane's out-of-pocket expenses.

Did you know?

Pet-related illnesses, accidents and inherited conditions are more common than you think. A trip to the vet can easily create a dent in your savings. Here are some conditions that will require medical care and the cost of these treatments:

- Cherry Eye. Treatment costs are approximately $300 - $500³.
- Foreign Body Obstruction. Treatment costs, with surgical removal, are approximately over $5,000³.
- Elbow Dysplasia. Treatment costs are approximately $1,500 to $4,000³.
